

Clarence W. Moss

January 22, 1936 - January 19, 2026

Clarence W. Moss passed away peacefully on January 19th, 2026, at the age of 89. Clarence was born in Billings, Montana, later moving to Wyoming in his childhood. It was there that he grew up, building the foundation of the life he would grow to love, carrying himself with quiet determination and pride.

Clarence worked hard throughout his life and was dedicated to serving his community, along with his family. After his father's passing, Harry Moss, Clarence took over and became the owner of his grocery store. There, he worked with honesty, consistency, and always had a strong sense of responsibility.

Clarence was a good man— stubborn at times, but he was guided by his principles and his belief in doing things the right way. He deeply valued self-reliance and keeping his word, those qualities defining him throughout his life. In his free time Clarence loved fishing and golfing, finding peace in the outdoors. He had a special passion for gardening, especially caring for his roses, which he tended with patience and pride.

Clarence is survived by his brother, Donald Moss, two sons, Austin Moss and Christopher Moss, along with his grandchildren, Alesi Baldwin, Keesh Baldwin, Nathan Moss, Natalie Moss, Elias Meyers, Addison Booram, and Asher Booram. They will remember him for his strength, integrity, and steady presence.

Clarence is preceded in death by his parents, Harry and Tilly Moss, his brother, John Phillip Moss, and his son, Drew Booram. Clarence leaves behind a life well lived and will be deeply missed by those who knew and loved him.
