

Eduardo Contreras-Meraz

August 24, 1937 - April 28, 2024

Eduardo “Lalo” Contreras Meraz born on August 24, 1937 was a beloved husband , father and grandfather. During his 86 years of life, he passed away peacefully in the mid afternoon hours of April 28, 2024. We will remember Eduardo for his love of nature by going on walks , his playfulness and his occasional endearing stubbornness at times. Eduardo was a very enthusiastic, loving, energetic, loved listening to music and a hard working man. He would go above and beyond to care for his family and anyone who knew him. The family (wife, sons, daughter, grandkids, great grandkids and daughter in laws) will forever treasure and cherish all the great memories Eduardo left in our hearts. He taught each and one of us the perfect example of what a strong human being really is by fighting like a warrior till the end. We will miss Eduardo dearly , but we are so blessed for the times we were able to enjoy beautiful memories with him. We will always feel his presence in our hearts.
