“ Mr. Patino was a wonderful person who cared for his grandchildren with great love and dedication. During my time as principal at Grapevine, he was always present to drop off and pick up his grandchildren, consistently showing his commitment to their education. He always had a smile on his face, a kind word about the work we did at the school, and a supportive presence that never went unnoticed. He attended school events, supported our staff in every way, and was known for his kindness and generosity of spirit. He will be greatly missed. Rest in peace. Rafael Olavide.
