“ Josh!! We used to be besties in Elementary School at Foothill Oak ... I can only say I had the funnest memories with him ... for sure he was the class clown & also the flirt lol had all the girls crushing on him, because of the way he was ... he wasn't only just funny & fun to be around ... he was also a very kind, sweet & caring person. Truth is I always had a crush on him & I remember a summer where idk how he got my number but he called me to tell me to be girl girlfriend (lol we were in fifth grade) I said no because I was as scared my dad would ever find out ... it may seem silly because we were just babies but even tho he knew I liked him and I never told him ... he would always follow me everywhere and try to make me laugh <3 ... I lost contact with him during middle school but I remember getting a friend request from him in high school and a message I was so happy hearing from him because I heard he wasn't doing so well ... for all these years I Hadn't heard from him ... Today I was thinking of him and I decided to look for him on Facebook but couldn't find any recent accounts but a came across him Dads Facebook and when I saw he profile picture and his cover photo it broke my heart ... I still can't believe he's gone :(... I would really want to know what happend to him to heal my inner child but I cannot find anything ... my prayers and condolences go out to the family . R.i.p my Joshy <3

“ My cousin , more like my brother you will forever live in my heart. I'll always cherish our beautiful memories like walking you to the Kindergarten area & me waiting til you lined up, Always like a total mom ! All the fun memories we shared in Tijuana with my friends , you making fun of me for about almost everything because I'm sensitive . “Sor not Sor” and “princess sauce” were things you and i only understood. I'll always miss you My Joshy until we meet again. I love you !
