

Joyce Dyonne Talbott

January 17, 1957 - August 31, 2022

Joyce Dyonne Talbott, 65, passed away surrounded by her loved ones in her home in Escondido, California.

Born to parents Jerald Eugene Pyle and Patricia Joyce Garrett-Pyle, January 17th, 1957 in Fort Worth, Texas, Joyce Dyonne Talbott; "Dyonne" as she preferred; was raised alongside her many siblings, three of which remained very close throughout her lifetime, Jeri Sue Perkins, Teresa Johnson, and James McPhail.

She moved to California in 1973 where she attended Hoover Highschool and was a member of French and Drama clubs where she enjoyed performing. Graduating, she moved on to University of Texas where she earned and finished her Degree in Accounting in 1984. She went on to receive work with different renowned Companies throughout the U.S. as Bookkeeper and Accountant.

In 1991, she entered military service, rising to rank SPC, Special Class, and a beloved armory chief, with pay equal to Corporal. She earned six medals throughout her military service and had attained exciting stories alongside her accomplishments. Many regarding transportation of military vehicles and armory antics including being able to "field strip" an M16 assault rifle blindfolded faster than any man on base could with their eyesight, and stories of meeting celebrities such as the Beatles; John Lennon and Yoko Ono, respectively; as well as Simon and Garfunkel. Her life was wondrous and well-lived.

Joyce Dyonne Talbott's legacy is continued on by her cherished children, Phylicia Andersen & Elliott Talbott, her dearest grandchildren, William and Bridgette; her adored and aforementioned siblings; and her beloved and besotted life partner, Rob Smietana.
