

Rosa Maria Beas

September 15, 1956 - October 28, 2021

Rosa Maria Beas was born on September 15, 1956 in Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico. She married Salvador Beas on January 26, 1973, in Cocula, Jalisco, Mexico. In the early 1980s, Rosa, along with her three eldest children, immigrated to the United States to join her husband. In that same decade, she gave birth to three more children and dedicated her time to raising them. In 1982 she began to study the Bible with the Jehovah's Witnesses and was baptized on May 3, 1986. She served Jehovah as a pioneer for over 14 years. Preaching God's word filled Rosa's life with happiness and she preached to everyone she could until her death on October 28, 2021.

Rosa was a ray of sunshine that lit up every room she walked into with her contagious smile, open arms, and loving heart. Even though her life was hard and faced many obstacles; you would never know, because she radiated so much joy and peacefulness.

Rosa is preceded in death by her mother Guadalupe Flores.

Rosa is survived by her Father: J. Martin Vidrio

Siblings: Alma Aurora, Martin, Jose Francisco, Saul, and Noemi del Rocio

Husband: Salvador Beas

Children: Salvador Beas Jr., Carlos, Jesus, Cindy, Ricardo, Yesenia

Grandchildren: Mariyah, Carson, Ruby, Leela, Luca

Psalm 30:11-12

You have changed my mourning into dancing; You have removed my sackcloth, and you clothe me with rejoicing, so that I may sing your praise and not keep silent. O Jehovah my God, I will praise you forever.

Expression of Gratitude

The Beas family wishes to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude to all who expressed kindness and love during this time of bereavement.
