“ I will truly miss my beloved Nina whom I was blessed to have by my side throughout the years for the sacraments of baptism, first communion, confirmation and marriage. I am eternally grateful for her unconditional love and prayers. Her dedication to her faith and prayer lives on in others. My sincere condolences and prayers to the Fraire Family. You will always have a special place in the hearts of the León family and our memories of growing up nearby in San Marcos, with our parents as dear friends and compadres will always be treasured. May she rest in the Lord's paradise alongside my Nino Vicente whom I also miss dearly.
